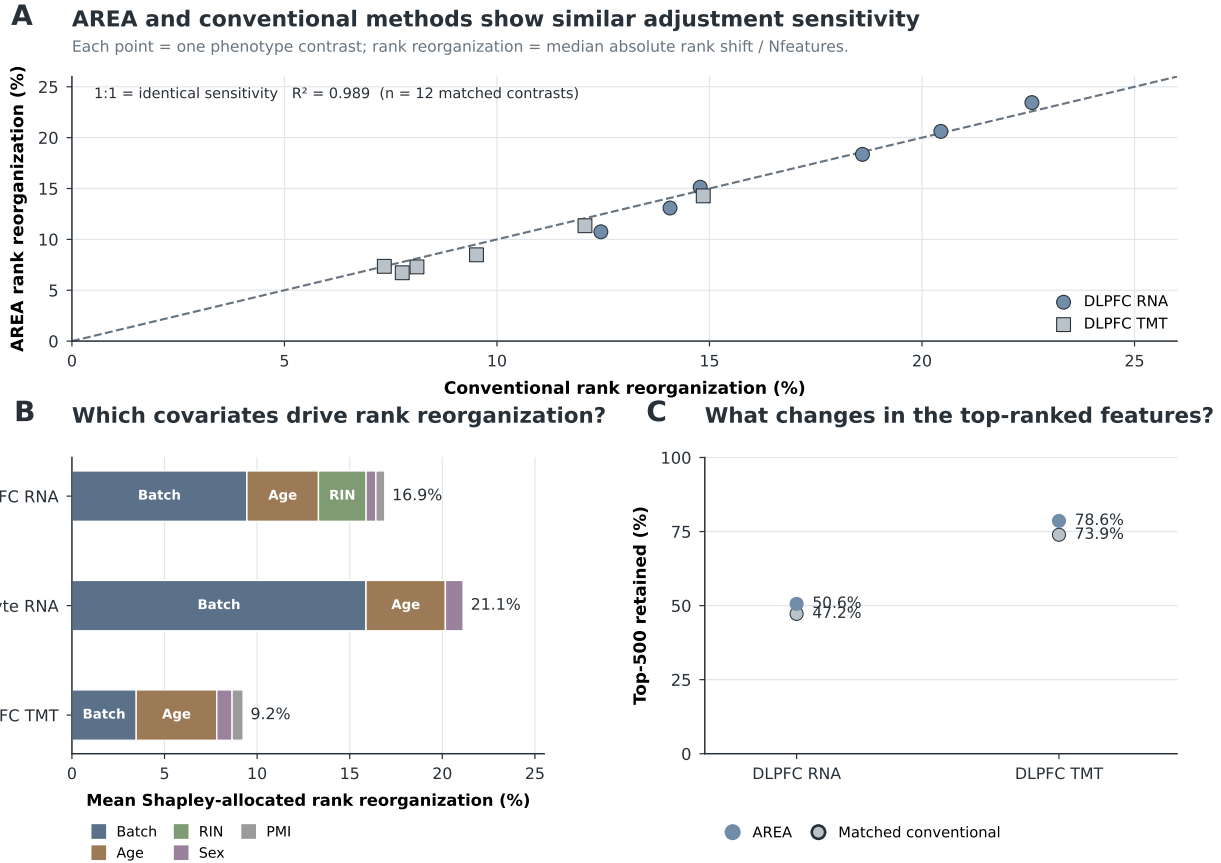
Figure 5. Covariate adjustment affects AREA and conventional rankings similarly

Adjustment sensitivity is compared on the same normalized rank-displacement scale across matched analyses



Rank reorganization = median(|rankadjusted − rankunadjusted|) / Nfeatures. Shapley allocations describe contributions to the statistical-model transformation from intercept-only to fully adjusted AREA; they are not causal or biological fractions.